CROOKS BEGINS DISTRICT COMMUNITY MEETINGS ON NOVEMBER 30

INDIANAPOLIS – To prepare for the 2006 session of the Indiana General Assembly, State Rep. Dave Crooks (D-Washington) announced today that he will conduct a series of town hall meetings throughout the 63rd House District, starting on November 30 in Jasper.

In all, Crooks will sponsor four town halls, all with an eye toward gauging public sentiments on issues the Legislature expects to face when it returns to action in January.

"One of the great pleasures I get from serving as a state representative is the chance to talk to the people of the 63rd House District and find out how I can best serve their interests while at the Statehouse," Crooks said. "I always enjoy the chance to meet citizens at county fairs and festivals and numerous other gatherings, but the community meetings will serve as a good starting point in my final preparations for the next legislative session.

"I encourage everyone to come to these meetings, make their feelings known and help me represent the district to the best of my ability," he continued. "If you are unable to attend, please know that you can always contact me by calling my Statehouse office toll-free at 1-800-382-9842 or e-mailing me through my Internet Web site at www.IN.gov/H63."

Here is the schedule for this year's community meetings. All sessions begin at 5 p.m.

NOVEMBER 30: Dubois County, Jasper City Hall, 610 Main Street, Jasper.

DECEMBER 5: Martin County, Loogootee City Council Chambers, 401 J.F.K. Avenue, Loogootee.

DECEMBER 7: Daviess County, Washington City Council Chambers, 200 Harned Avenue, Washington.

DECEMBER 12: Pike County, Winslow Community Center, 411 East Porter Street, Winslow.
